For the Birds – Wheel and Hand-building Projects and Feathered Friends

Picture birds fliting and flying throughout your yard enjoying the hand-crafted bird-friendly environment you have created. In this class you will make feeders, houses, and baths to entice feathered friends to your yard. Since projects will use both hand-building techniques and wheel skills, participants should have a level of competence and experience with both. Hand-building techniques will be basic, wheel work requires centering and pulling walls with even rims. $110/participant + $35 materials fee.

Mahjongg (American) Monday Open Play

Practice. Polish. Play. Open Play for American Mahjongg is designed for players that have completed formal instruction, offering extended table time in a larger group setting following NMJL rules (scoring optional). Instruction is not provided, but seasoned players are available to answer questions. The more you play, the more confident and strategic you become - building familiarity with your official NMJL card. Each player is required to bring their own Official NMJL card. Not a full table of four? Don't worry - there are fun ways to play with two, three, or four players. After registering and paying through Auburn Parks and Recreation, participants are required to RSVP weekly using the TwoDotMahjongg RSVP app. You will receive app login details after paid registration. $100/semester or $25/month.

If you are looking for Theatre Camps, please refer to the Afterschool & Camps section beginning on page 17.

Playback Theater Improv Class for Adults

Step into the spotlight with Playback Theatre, an interactive and creative theatre experience where stories come to life! Students will explore acting, improvisation, movement, and storytelling as they learn how to listen to a story and then "play it back" on stage. Through fun theatre games and group activities, students will build confidence, creativity, communication skills, and teamwork. No scripts to memorize and no acting experience needed—just bring your imagination and be ready to play! $90.

Playback Theater for Teens

Your story. Our stage. Playback Theatre is a unique form of improvisational theatre where real stories and everyday moments are brought to life on the spot. Through theatre games, movement, storytelling, and improvisation, participants will learn to listen, respond, and transform shared experiences into spontaneous performances. No scripts to memorize and no acting experience necessary! This class is all about creativity, connection, collaboration, and having fun while discovering the power of storytelling. Come ready to play, listen, create—and see what happens when a story is played back! $90.

AACT Teen Performers Announce Open Auditions for "Between the Lines, Jr."

What if your favorite book suddenly started talking back? What if the characters inside the pages had opinions of their own? And what if the line between the story you're reading and the life you're living started getting a little... blurry? We are looking for high schoolers to audition for "Between the Lines, Jr." Whether you have experience or not we would love to meet you. Please be prepared to sing 30 seconds of an acapella song, preferably something from a Broadway musical, and be prepared to be grouped together to read a side (lines from the script). Beginning Nov. 16, go to auburnact.org for more details, audition sides and to access the link to sign up for an audition slot. Mandatory Parent Meeting 1/9.

AACT Teen Performers Are Proud to Present "Between the Lines, Jr."

"Between the Lines, Jr." by Jodi Piccoult and Timothy Allen McDonald and Music and Lyrics by Kate Anderson and Elyssa Samsel, is an empowering and enchanting musical for anyone who has struggled to find their place in the world. The musical follows Delilah, an outsider in a new town and a new school, seeks comfort in the pages of her favorite book. In those pages she feels heard and understood by the handsome Prince Oliver. But as the lines between fantasy and reality begin to blur in extraordinary ways, Delilah realizes her dreams in the real world are worth fighting for. Tickets are $12/adults, and $10 students and seniors. Tickets are available starting Jan. 23 at AuburnACT.org

AACT Presents "The Diviners" by Jim Leonard, Jr.

Join AACT as we present "The Diviners," by Jim Leonard, Jr. Set against the dusty backdrop of the Great Depression, Jim Leonard Jr.'s "The Diviners" tells the moving story of Buddy Layman, a gifted boy terrified of water who possesses a mystical ability to divine underground springs. When a disillusioned preacher wandering through town strikes up an unlikely friendship with Buddy, the small community of CC, Indiana is forced to confront faith, healing, tragedy, and the ties that bind us together. By turns funny, heart-wrenching, and profoundly poetic, "The Diviners" is a story about connection, grace, and the quiet miracles that happen in the places we least expect. Don't miss this unforgettable theatrical experience! Tickets are $14 adults, and $12 students, children, and seniors. Tickets are available starting April 5 at AuburnACT.org

The Auburn Parks and Recreation Therapeutics Program offers recreational activities, programs/leagues, social activities and field trips for citizens with special needs. Therapeutic program offerings are a great way for your child, teen, or adult to meet new people, learn skills, and socialize in a structured environment. All programs are free, unless otherwise noted. When you register on MyRec, there is a set of TR Program Guidelines or Special Olympics Guidelines to review. Please ensure your participant meets these guidelines prior to registering them. To stay current with these and other local/regional program offerings, including Special Olympics, e-mail ekaufman@auburnal.gov to be added to our e-mail list.

Volunteer

Rec. VIP: Volunteer in Parks!

Giving back to your community can be rewarding AND fun when you serve as a Rec. VIP...Volunteer in Parks that is! Volunteers bring a unique set of skills, experience and ideas that can help create new and exciting programs that would otherwise not be possible. Whether it is coaching a youth sports team, assisting at art camps, or helping to keep a special event running smoothly, volunteers are an invaluable asset to our community! REC VIP Members will receive a quarterly newsletter with upcoming volunteer opportunities, a t-shirt, swag, and a chance to attend volunteer appreciation events! Register for the 2025-2026 fiscal year online at auburnal.gov/parks/register. A sign-up form for individual volunteer opportunities will be sent out to registrants each quarter. FREE.

Registration Guidelines

Registration will begin Monday, December 7 at 8 a.m. unless otherwise stated. Citizens must have an online account to register for any Parks and Recreation programs. An account should be created for any individual who is interested in registering and participating in a program. To access the online system and create an account visit auburnal.gov/parks/register. Programs with an associated cost will require payment which can be made online using a credit card. Individuals who wish to pay with cash or check can register and pay in–person at the Harris Center Monday–Friday, 8 a.m.–5 p.m. Registration will only be accepted from participants who live or work in the City of Auburn during the first two weeks of registration, December 7-20.

ACCOMMODATIONS: In accordance with the requirements of Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 ("ADA"), the City of Auburn, Alabama does not discriminate on the basis of disability in its services, programs, or activities. Upon request, qualified individuals with disabilities will be provided with reasonable accommodations. To ensure effectiveness of the accommodations, the City requests that the Administrative offices of the Parks and Recreation Department be notified of the need at least 48 hours prior to the program, event, or activity. Please refer to the back of this brochure for a complete listing of all facilities and parks. You may also visit auburnal.gov/parks for details about individual parks and facilities.

Please visit auburnal.gov/ada for additional information.

Rent a Facility

City of Auburn Parks and Recreation facilities and parks are available to the public for rental. Rental fees vary depending on the amount of space, equipment, and type of facility needed. All rentals must be made online. For more information on city facilities, please visit auburnal.gov/parks or call (334) 501-2930.

Rental Information

- Facility and park reservations may be secured up to twelve months in advance and must be finalized no less than one week prior to the scheduled event date.
- A security deposit is required for indoor facility rentals and will be refunded upon verification that the facility has been returned to its original condition.
- For park reservations, only one group will be booked per day.
- The rental period must encompass both set-up and breakdown time.

The Auburn Parks and Recreation Department administration offices are located in the Harris Center at 425 Perry Street and are open Monday–Friday, 8 a.m. until 5 p.m.

REGISTRATION: Registration is required for all programs. Your early registration makes a difference, as all programs have a minimum participation requirement. Registration is accepted on a first come, first served basis. After a class has reached capacity, names will be placed on a waiting list. Contact us at (334) 501–2930 for questions or more information.

PHOTOS: City of Auburn staff will periodically take photos of program participants and park visitors. These photos may be used in our publications, including seasonal program guides, facility brochures, advertisements and on our website. If you do not wish to have your photo taken, please notify the photographer at that time.

WAIVER AND RELEASE: All participants in programs conducted by the City of Auburn Parks and Recreation Department are required to sign a liability/waiver release form. Participants under the age of 19 will be required to have a parent/guardian sign for them.

FEES: Classes with fees must be paid at the time of registration.

REFUNDS: All refund requests must be made in writing to the Parks and Recreation Administrative office via email (registration@auburnal.gov) or using the refund request form on the home page of the online portal. Refunds for leisure activities will be processed and issued within 1 week if originally paid online by customer or 2–3 weeks if registration was processed in–person at the Harris Center. Tennis and Youth Sports refunds will be processed and received after 30 days. All refunds may be subject to a 10% fee.
